SPECIAL NOTICE: The Breeding Right that is being sold is as described in the Breeding Right Agreement. A summary of the Breeding Right is set out below for information only. The successful Purchaser must sign a Deed of Novation to acquire the Breeding Right on the terms set out therein and within that document it must confirm that it has relied exclusively upon its own appraisals, examinations and inspections and/or those carried out by third parties on its behalf and that it has had adequate opportunity to and has satisfied itself as to the veterinary history and veterinary condition of the Stallion in respect of its purchase of the Breeding Right. Any prospective purchaser is strongly recommended to read the Breeding Right Agreement and Deed of Novation and take its own legal advice before making a bid.

1. The Breeding Right will confer upon the Purchaser an entitlement to have one mare approved by The Stud serviced by the Stallion in each Northern Hemisphere breeding season from 2025 onwards while the Stallion is owned by the Irish National Stud
2. The Breeding Right shall not entitle the Purchaser to participate in the management and/or control of the Stallion or in any other benefit of ownership other than those outlined. Furthermore, the Purchaser shall have no obligation as regards to cost of maintaining the Stallion as a result of this agreement.
3. It shall be for the Purchaser to insure the Breeding Right to such value and against such risks as the Buyer sees fit.
4. Any nomination will be subject to the terms of The Irish National Stud's Yearly Nomination Form (a copy of which is available on request).
5. The Stallion Owner has pre-emption rights in respect of this sale and any future sale of the Breeding Right (see paragraph number 1 above).
6. If the Purchaser decides in any year to sell his nomination, he must ensure the notification to The Irish National Stud is made in accordance with the Breeding Right Agreement.
7. The Stallion Owner shall be entitled to sell the Stallion at any time without any liability to the Purchaser.
8. The Breeding Right agreement and deed of novation is available from tattersallsonline@tattersalls.com
9. For further enquiries, contact the Irish National Stud at gswift@irishnationalstud.ie
10. The breeding right is sold with Irish VAT.
